ANNEXURE A - QUARTERLY 37 UPDATE ON MRA 3

3 STATUS OF ACTIONS REQUIRED FOR THE EXECUTIVE DEPUTY MAYOR'S TRIP UNDERTAKEN FROM 2 TO 6 DECEMBER 2023 TO GENEVA, SWITZERLAND:

1. Link Messrs Alfredo and Sergio with Mr David Valentine (Director: Treasury Services) as related to green bonds for housing opportunities (Responsible: International Relations Unit).

STATUS: Complete. Engagement took place on 09 April 2024 between Mr David Valentine, Hilton Robbins, ED- Nolwandle Gqiba and the UTTE team: Mr Alfredo and Mr Sergio and Ms Delana Finlayson.

2. Support the UTTE in their efforts to secure funding from the VRM Foundation (Responsible: Executive Deputy Mayor's Office).

STATUS: Complete

The Spatial Planning & Environment Directorate's Urban Planning & Design (UPD) team is assisting in two key ways:

- Spatial identification: Identifying suitable land within the city.
- Acquisition guidance: Guiding UTTE through the application process to acquire the land, ensuring compliance with all relevant legislation and agreements.

3. Reach out to the United Nations Environmental Programme (UNEP) with the view to identify possible future collaboration (Responsible: International Relations Unit and Environmental Management Department).

STATUS: Complete. The interaction with UNEP is linked via the City's ICLEI membership as one of the ICLEI linked initiatives. More specifically, by means of the Generation Restoration initiative.

4. Link the City's Environmental Management Department and Climate Change Unit with their counterparts at the City of Geneva to identify possible future collaboration (Responsible: International Relations Unit).

STATUS: Complete. The City of Geneva's Julie Perrenoud was connected with Cape Town's Saul Roux (Head: Environmental Strategy Implementation) and Amy Davison (Head: Climate Change), and they are currently liaising as related to various associated matters.
