

ANNEXURE A

QUESTIONS TO THE MAYOR IN TERMS OF RULE 22 FOR 28 APRIL 2016
COUNCIL MEETING

The City of Cape Town is run on five principles outlined in the IDP. One of the principles is a Caring City.

Residents who have lived in Maynard Street, Cape Town. Some of the residents lived in these houses for up to 34 years. Residents who lived there for decades were not informed that their houses, yes rented from the City, was being advertised for sale. Only seeing an advert in Cape Times and Die Burger 27 November 2015.

1. Has the Council been in contact with occupants and discussed plans for the houses.
2. What alternative accommodation is the City offering the residents?
3. What is the intended use of the housing units once vacant?
4. How is this action of selling occupied rental properties, without consulting the occupiers, helping to show the City as a caring City.
5. How is this action different from gentrification.
